Ogden, Dowler Receive Jaycee Service Awards

By DAVE AMEY
Herald Staff Writer

Robert G. Ogden was named the year's Outstanding Young Man and John F. Dowler was presented the Senior Citizen's Award by the Circleville Jaycees Monday night at the 25th Annual Distinguished Service Award banquet.

They were honored with Dale E. Bower, the Outstanding Young Farmer, and Roger D. Wolfe, Outstanding Young Educator, at a dinner banquet at the 4-H and Grange Building.

Guest speaker for the evening was Father Connolly of Washington C. H., who is spiritual leader for the Cincinnati Bengals. Master of Ceremonies was Jerry Leist.

Ogden, 34, said "I hope I can live up to your expectations" after receiving his award from 1971 recipient, Dr. Robert Liggett.

The new DSA winner is an engineer in the manufacturing section of the General Electric plant. He lives with wife Sharon and children Clayton, 8, and Susan, 5, at 556 N. Pickaway St.

Ogden was born Nov. 9, 1938, in Altavista, Va., and has a twin brother. He graduated from Altavista High School and was valedictorian of his class. He received a Bachelor of Science Degree in Electrical Engineering and a Master's in Business Administration from Virginia Polytechnical Institute, where he was a member of the Corps of Cadets, Executive Committee Member, YMCA cabinet member, Inter-Dorm council, Senator, Civilian Student body, YMCA Administrative Committee and Intramural bowling and tennis.

At age 24, he was the youngest industrial representative in the United States for the Governor's Office of the State of Virginia.

Locally, he has been active in the Young Republican Club, working most recently on fund raising for the re-election of the President.

As a member of the YMCA, he has directed a membership drive for the largest enrollment to date and is teaching tennis to youth. He is publicity chairman for the Y's membership drive this year and has been nominated to the Board of Directors.

He is a member of the Kiwanis Club. For the club, he has worked as membership chairman, the Charity Ball chairman for three years, and the chairman of the Boys and Girls Committee.

He has also worked closely with the Welfare Department and the Boys Home in this community to see that needy families have had Christmas for the past two years. The committee also gives YMCA memberships to interested boys.

He has organized the clean-up and repainting of equipment at the Southside Park.

As a member of the Mid-Ohio Health Planning Council he has helped to pass and approve new policies in the county, which include much effort for an all-county emergency vehicle program.

He is a member of the Board of Directors of the Heart Association, and is helping to establish a working program in the county.

He is religiously affiliated with the Community United Methodist Church and is vice-chairman of the Social Concerns Committee. Under Ogden's leadership, the committee is working closely with the HUD program to provide low-income housing for senior citizens. He also teaches Sunday School.

"I didn't do all this for any honors," said John Dowler, after receiving his Senior Citizens Award from Nelson Stevens. "I did it for the community."

Dowler was born in 1896 in Groveport. He received a Bachelor of Science Degree in Agricultural Economics from Ohio State University in 1920 and a Master's degree in the same field in 1927.

Mr. Dowler has taught bookkeeping and accounting at OSU and served a 6-year term with the Farm Security administration.

He was an area vegetable farmer from 1941 to 1959 and was the largest vegetable grower for fresh market production in the state.

He pioneered special packaging and handling of asparagus and sweet corn and is innovator of hydrocooling and icing of sweet corn. Other innovative practices include the use of irrigation equipment and fertility practices and he also experimented with farm chemicals and hybrid seed varieties.

The church, primarily the St. Paul Lutheran Church, plays an important part in Mr. Dowler's life. He has been treasurer of the church, chairman of the building committee, chairman of the remodeling committee and has served on all the boards and held all the offices in the church.

In the community, Mr. Dowler is secretary of the Harrison Twp. Zoning Board, secretary of the Scioto Valley Grange and has held all the offices in that organization. He is a member of Pomona Grange and a retired grange deputy after 15 years' service.

He was a clerk for the Harrison Twp. School board before consolidation and a charter member of the Mondamin Farm Bureau Council.

As chairman of the 4-H and Grange Building Committee, he was instrumental in getting community support for the building and backed it by signing personal notes. He heads up the Grange lunchroom during fair week.

He is a former member of the Farmers Home Administration Board, the Farm Bureau Cooperative Board, the Extension Advisory Committee, and the Pickaway County Farm Bureau Federation Board.

Mr. Dowler is a member of the Ohio State Grange and served as that group's secretary from 1951 to 1972. He is past secretary-treasurer of the Ohio State Grange Cooperative and was editor of the "Centennial History Ohio State Grange."

He is a former director of the Ohio Wool Growers Board and has hosted many IFYE students and foreign visitors with the help of his wife, Helen.

Cease-Fire Complaints Drop

SAIGON (AP) — The number of cease-fire violations reported by the South Vietnamese dropped 20 per cent today to the lowest level in more than two weeks.

There was no immediate explanation for the decrease nor evidence it resulted from the appeal Saturday by the Joint Military Commission to stop the bloodshed.

The Saigon command reported 135 Communist attacks during the 24 hours ending at 6 a.m., including fighting in Quang Tri Province, just below the demilitarized zone; near the Cambodian border 30 miles west of Saigon; and in the western Mekong Delta.

The South Vietnamese have been reporting an average of 170 violations a day for the past week. Most are small incidents.

Two investigations of alleged major violations began today.

Teams from both the International Commission of Control and Supervision and the Joint Military Commission launched a field probe into the shooting down of a U.S. helicopter on a peacekeeping mission Friday near An Loc, 60 miles north of Saigon. Five crewmen were wounded, one critically. The United States blamed the Viet Cong.

Another team from the military commission—which comprises the United States, North and South Vietnam and the Viet Cong—arrived in Da Nang to begin an investigation of heavy fighting around Sa Huynh, a fishing village on the northern coast about 90 miles south of Da Nang.

The Viet Cong said it controls Sa Huynh and the Saigon government has been attacking the area in a "land-grabbing operation." The Saigon command claims its troops never lost control of the area. But there have been reports from other sources that the South Vietnamese lost control, then regained key portions of the sector and had suffered heavy casualties.

Meanwhile, the South Vietnamese and the Viet Cong neared completion of their first round of prisoner exchanges, which began Feb. 12. The remaining 300 South Vietnamese to be he said anticipates decisions that could strike down Ohio's system of financing.

His bill would require Ohio's wealthy school districts to consolidate with poorer nearby districts to achieve districts nearly equal in tax base. He said about 45 tax-rich districts would be required to merge or consolidate with other districts. The move would require many of the wealthier districts to assess higher taxes.

The yardstick envisioned in Pease's bill would create districts with a valuation per pupil of about $30,000. He said 45 districts now have valuations beyond that figure in varying degrees. By taking in nearby poor districts, Pease said the wealthy ones may have to levy at a higher rate than now to keep per pupil expenditures at their current level.

His bill also would increase state support from $600 to $900 a pupil.

John H. Hall, assistant executive director of the OEA, said that if the Supreme Court upholds the circuit Court, there would have to be "a massive revamping of Ohio's state tax structure and its local tax structure together."

Hall said the OEA has had a suit similar to the Texas case before U.S. District Judge Carl Rubin since last June. He predicted that Rubin will "write in the same decision" in that case as the one handed down by the Supreme Court in Rodriguez.

"That would really put Ohio in it," the veteran OEA official said.

School-Property Tax Ruling May Rattle Financing

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A U.S. Supreme Court decision which legal spokesmen say is imminent could have far reaching implications on Ohio school financing, but the state would not be totally unprepared.

Education officials and others have been watching closely for months a Texas case which contends that using property taxes from school districts of varying tax wealth is unconstitutional because it deprives pupils in poor districts of the chance for equal educational opportunity.

The awaited decision involves the case of Rodriguez versus San Antonio. A three-judge U.S. Circuit Court held that the Texas property tax law is discriminatory. Officials of the Ohio Education Association say Ohio's laws are similar.

Rep. Donald J. Pease, D-54 Oberlin, chairman of the Ohio House Education Committee, introduced a bill last week

Kurt Waldheim Back From Asian Journey

NEW YORK (AP) — U.S. Secretary-General Kurt Waldheim has returned from a 2½-week trip to Asia. He said the highlight of his trip was a discussion of the India-Pakistan situation, which he termed "open-ended."

Waldheim arrived on Sunday via San Francisco from his final stop abroad, a conference in Tokyo with Japanese officials. He visited heads of state and other officials in six countries.

Kerner To Fight Conviction In Bribery Case

CHICAGO (AP) — Federal Judge Otto Kerner says he will battle to erase his conviction for bribery—the first guilty verdict ever returned against an active member of the U.S. Court of Appeals.

Kerner, 64, and his longtime associate, Theodore J. Isaacs, 62, were convicted Monday in U.S. District Court of conspiracy, bribery, fraud and income-tax evasion.

They were accused of taking a bribe in the form of race track stock while Kerner was governor of Illinois from 1961 to 1968.

Judge Robert J. Taylor allowed 30 days for motions, but he did not set a date for sentencing. Kerner and Isaacs were free on their own recognizance.

Kerner said in a statement: "This battle is even more important than life itself because it involves my reputation and honor, which are dearer than life itself, and I intend to continue this battle."

His lawyer, Paul R. Connolly, said he would ask for a judgment of acquittal and, if that was denied, he would move for a new trial.

James R. Thompson, the U.S. district attorney who prosecuted the case, told newsmen: "When the time for sentencing comes ... it's not conceivable that I would agree to probation."

Kerner faces a maximum sentence of 83 years in prison and $93,000 in fines on the 17-count conviction. Isaacs, charged with 15 counts, could be sentenced to 73 years in prison and fined $73,000.

Kerner additionally was convicted of perjury and making false statements to a federal agent.

The former governor, a longtime member of the Democratic party hierarchy in Illinois, sat composed and motionless as the guilty verdicts were read. The jury of seven women and five men had deliberated three days.

The government called 40 witnesses, and the defense called 31 in the seven-week trial.

The government's key witnesses were Mrs. Marjorie Everett, former head of Chicago Thoroughbred Enterprises, and William S. Miller, chairman during Kerner's administration of the Illinois Racing Board, a regulatory agency.

Mrs. Everett, an unindicted coconspirator, said she made the racing shares available to Kerner and Isaacs in 1962. She also said she contributed $45,000 to Kerner's campaign for governor in 1962.

She said Miller had a "life and death hold" over her racing enterprises.

Miller, 72, was indicted with Kerner but agreed to testify in exchange for dismissal of charges against him.

He said that he relayed the bribe offer to Kerner and Isaacs and that Kerner indicated his acceptance by saying, "That's very nice of Marj."

The prosecution said that Kerner and Isaacs used a complicated series of financial maneuvers to hide their ownership of the stock, that Kerner ordered racing boards to give preferred treatment to Mrs. Everett's interests and that both men failed to pay $83,000 each in taxes on their stock profits.

In 3½ days on the witness stand, Kerner denied all the charges and said he never interpreted the stock offer as a bribe.

POW Returnees Freed Sunday Enroute Home

CLARK AIR BASE, Philippines (AP) — In unrestrained public joy at being free, American prisoners of war frolicked with more than 1,000 teen-agers today, and then 18 of them flew out of Clark Air Base for the United States.

The big C141 hospital plane was due at Travis Air Force Base in California about 6 p.m. EST.

One of the 20 Americans released Sunday by Hanoi was left behind. He was Capt. Joseph Crecca Jr., 32, of East Orange, N.J., who has malaria. But doctors said his condition was not serious and he would be flown home later in the week.

The 20th man, Lt. James W. Bailey, 30, of Kosciusko, Miss., flew home Monday to be with his ailing father.

So far, 163 American military and civilian prisoners have been released in North and South Vietnam, leaving 432 to be returned, according to lists supplied by the North Vietnamese. Hanoi is expected to free another large group early next week.

A few hours before their departure today, a dozen of the Air Force and Navy fliers visited Clark Air Base's Wagner High School. Laughing and hugging the teen-agers who asked questions about their long imprisonment and demanded their autographs, the former POWs—all of them imprisoned for five years or more—roamed from classroom to classroom for an hour.

"Wow! That's my first in five years," said Capt. Herbert B. Ringsdorf, 33, of Elba, Ala., slapping his hand to his head after a kiss from Debbie Henry, 16, of Arlington, Va.

Lt. Cmdr. Joseph C. Plumb Jr., 32, from Gary, Ind., was embraced by teen-agers after he said: "The biggest change I see is that the girls are prettier now than when I went in six years ago."

The men looked rested after two days at the base hospital.

"I thought they would look more beat up, you know, tortured and things like that," said Carlene Beck, 15, from Fort Walton Beach, Fla., as the men passed her. They were smiling and trim in their uniforms.

Lt. Cmdr. Frederick R. Purrington of New Bedford, Mass., told one class: "I've been told you feel fortunate we are here amongst you. Let me say we are the fortunate ones. Your faith, your support was the key that brought us home. You turned the key."

About 100 persons gathered at the flight line to cheer the men when they took off for home.

President To Speak

KEY BISCAYNE, Fla. (AP) — President Nixon will make a nationwide radio broadcast on the economy shortly after noon EST Wednesday, the Florida White House announced today.

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market carved out some broad gains today in fairly active trading, but its early momentum slackened at mid-day.

The noon Dow Jones average of 30 industrials was up 3.46 to 982.69, and gaining issues forged a lead of nearly 2-1 over decliners on the New York Stock Exchange. After the first 30 minutes of trading the Dow had been ahead 8.13 points.

The Big Board's most-active issue was International Utilities, up 1/2 to 25, mainly on a block of 181,000 shares that sold at that figure.

On the American Stock Exchange, the price-change index was up .01 to 25.41 as prices were generally higher over a narrow range.

The noon New York Stock Exchange index was up .16 to 62.09.

Skyjackings Prove Surprise To Returnee From Viet War

PORTSMOUTH, Va. (AP) — "What the hell is all of this?" asked a returned prisoner of war when he saw a list of airplane hijackings in a news annual he was reading to catch up on the world he left behind nearly seven years ago.

A friend who saw Lt. Paul Galanti of Richmond, Va., in the Portsmouth Naval Hospital said the officer was astounded Monday when he read of the number of hijackings which had taken place in the United States in recent years.

"The next section of the book dealt with Woodstock," said the friend, who declined to be named.

"You're not ready for that," the friend told Galanti, referring to the 1969 rock music festival in New York State.

Galanti, who was given liberty during the weekend, spent the time with his wife visiting friends in the Virginia Beach area. He took an intense interest in the new models of cars he saw on the streets.

The 33-year-old Galanti knew a lot about color television without having ever seen it—because his cellmate in his North Vietnam prison camp had told him about the technicalities of television, the friend said.

Another of the freed prisoners was amazed at the pants suits some of the wives were wearing and at the buckskin shoes a friend wore.

Morton Treated For Malignancy

WASHINGTON (AP) — Interior Secretary Rogers C.B. Morton will begin radiation therapy today for an early stage prostate malignancy.

"I have been assured that there is no reason to be apprehensive due to the early stage at its discovery," said Morton, 58, in a statement issued here Monday.

Morton will be treated at the Stanford University Medical Center in Palo Alto, Calif. He said the treatment "may extend for a number of weeks" but would not prevent him from working out of a small office in nearby Menlo Park.

Morton said the malignancy was discovered during a recent annual physical examination.

Petai's Body Still Missing In France

Virginia Beach has been intrigued with color television and push-button telephones, his wife says. Mulligan, who was a POW nearly seven years, took his first walk around the hospital grounds Monday on a sunny day.

Petai's Body Still Missing In France

PARIS (AP) — Police placed a guard outside the national military cemetery at Douaumont today to keep out the body of Marshal Philippe Petai, the World War I hero who headed the collaborationist Vichy regime in World War II.

The coffin containing Petai's remains was stolen from its tomb on the barren Ile d'Yeu in the Atlantic Ocean, reviving the controversy over the hero of Verdun.

Various newspapers condemned the profanation of the tomb, but they could not agree on who might have done it. Several linked it to the election of a new National Assembly next month, and the left-wing Combat said: "It threatens to put the authorities in an embarrassing situation."

Petai's supporters say that he should get his "dearest wish" of burial among the soldiers he led at the bloody 1916 Battle of Verdun. The French National War Veterans Association contends that the Douaumont cemetery is reserved for "fighters who died for France" and, since Petai collaborated with the Nazis, his burial there "would be totally illegal."

The cemetery guard at the Ile d'Yeu noticed on Monday that the covering of the tomb was slightly askew, and he saw fresh cement, indicating the tomb had been opened. Legal authorities opened the tomb and found the coffin missing.

Police were checking all cars and small trucks in the Verdun area that might be carrying the body. Thursday is the anniversary of the beginning of the battle in 1916, in which nearly 400,000 men died. Petai was named commander of the French troops at Verdun four days after the start of the fighting and was awarded France's highest decorations and honors for his leadership.

Trudeau Wins Party Backing Over Budget

OTTAWA (AP) — There were clear indications today that the Canadian government's budget proposals would gain the support needed from the New Democratic party to keep Prime Minister Pierre Elliott Trudeau's minority Liberal government in power, at least temporarily.

New Democrat leader David Lewis said there was much he liked in the budget that Finance Minister John Turner presented to the House of Commons on Monday. The party's 31 votes provide Trudeau a majority as long as they stay with him.

The budget calls for cuts in the personal income tax, increased pensions and lower sales taxes and customs duties. Turner told newsmen that more than 70 per cent of the tax cuts would go to families where the breadwinner makes less than $10,000 a year.

"It's a family budget for the average Canadian family," the minister said. But it also risks inflation by a $975 million deficit on $19 billion in expenditures. Turner said this risk had to be taken to cut unemployment, which is now over 7 per cent.

A unique feature of the bill provides for adjustment of income-tax rates and exemptions to compensate for price rises, beginning next year. Canada will become one of the few countries in the world with such a system to compensate for inflation.

disenchanted with this trend. The United States and Britain quit a U.N. committee on colonialism two years ago because they felt the Africans and Asians sided too much with the Russians. Secretary of State William P. Rogers complained in the General Assembly last year of bloc voting, an African characteristic.

Now the Africans are happily getting ready for a landmark holiday. The Organization of African Unity, home-front counterpart of the U.N. African Group, will celebrate its 10th birthday May 25 in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, where it was formed and has headquarters.

U.N. Secretary-General Kurt Waldheim will be there. His predecessor, U Thant, attended the OAU summit meeting every year.

The OAU has two main aims: to fight in the United Nations against the remnants of European rule over Africa, and to keep strictly African problems out of the United Nations, in favor of domestic or regional handling.

It has fended off U.N. consideration of the 1963 Moroccan-Algeria and 1964 Somali-Ethiopian-Kenyan border wars; the 1965 tension between Rwanda and Burundi; the 1968-71 Nigerian-Biafran civil war; last summer's fighting in Burundi, and last fall's expulsion of Asians from Uganda.

The group of black and Mediterranean African countries represents less than a tenth of the world's population but includes almost a third of the United Nations' members—41 out of 132.

Vietnam Peace Agreements Head To National Archives

WASHINGTON (AP) — The television lights blinked out, the waiters in the Hotel Majestic were clearing away the champagne glasses and the agreement to end the war in Vietnam was official. Now the papers that made it so had become historical documents.

Eventually the two agreements signed in Paris Jan. 27 will take their place in the National Archives along with the treaty of 1848 that ended the war with Mexico, the Louisiana Purchase of 1803 and the Japanese surrender documents signed aboard the battleship Missouri in 1945.

But in Paris they were the responsibility of Charles Bevans, assistant

State Department legal adviser for treaties. Bevans brought them home in his briefcase, aboard the same airplane that carried Secretary of State William P. Rogers, who signed for the United States.

The United States takes its documents seriously—as contracts between nations, as sociological history and as research material for scholars. There are rigid mechanisms for storing as well as cleaning house.

The Vietnam papers, being executive agreements that went into force on signing, will go quickly to the Archives. At the moment they are in Bevans's safe, awaiting only the printing of manuscripts with text background information. Then two men from the State Department will take them to the Archives, a building Washington visitors know as the repository for the Constitution and Bill of Rights.

The National Archives has one million cubic feet of record storage in Washington and another 5½ million cubic feet in centers around the country. They're needed because each federal agency must turn over documents more than 50 years old—even though only one or two per cent become permanent.

Find Baby On Airplane

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP)—Youngstown airport officials today were checking passenger lists in an attempt to find the mother of a newly-born baby girl found in the restroom of a United Air Lines plane.

The baby was reported in satisfactory condition at a local hospital.

Officials said she had apparently been born during the flight from Washington, D.C., to Youngstown Monday night and then abandoned once the plane landed in Youngstown.

She had been found by a United worker cleaning up the plane about an hour after passengers left the flight late Monday night. United officials said the flight also stopped in Pittsburgh, but that the last stage of the trip is only a short hop.

United said the baby's umbilical cord was still attached and that she had been jammed into the toilet bowl.

By Abigail Van Buren

Parent Without Partner? Not This Lover

DEAR ABBY: I just read about the married woman whose girl friend found an ideal husband through Parents Without Partners, and she was so envious she wanted to try for a new one herself.

A warning: Parents Without Partners is a well-meaning organization, but some married men go as guests of members and have a field day with the single ladies. I know this for a fact as my own husband admitted he has attended meetings in three states. Several women fell for his line only to find out later that he used an assumed name and is very much married. He told one lady his wife was killed in a car crash. Another one he told he was divorced. The last one he told he was never married.

I rang up our local P.W.P. and told them to watch out for my husband, and they thanked me. Now he is barred.

I am thinking about looking for a new mate for myself, but I sure wouldn't try P.W.P. My husband told me if all the married men dropped out, they would fold up.

PHOENIX

DEAR PHOENIX: Liars can be found everywhere, and P.W.P. is no exception. However, character references, which are carefully checked, are required for membership. P.W.P. is neither a lonely-hearts club nor a dating bureau, but they have much to offer the single parent.

Let's hear it from a member!

DEAR ABBY: I have been a member of Parents Without Partners for three years and I wish more people knew what this wonderful organization is and what it is NOT!

First of all, it is NOT a "lonely-hearts club," or a "husband hunting" ground. Only about 10 per cent of the members marry someone they have met in the organization. I have watched many men and women come and go, bitter and disillusioned because they have joined P.W.P. to find a mate.

I joined this group for my children. So we could go places and do things with others in the same boat. This is the good that P.W.P. does that no one every talks about. They have fantastic group discussions concerning problems from raising children to divorce, to dating, to marriage. They have family outings, picnics, plays, and camp-outs, and all the work in this group is strictly on a volunteer basis.

The purpose of this organization is to teach serious-minded people how to raise a family without a partner. And when they learn that, they are ready to look for one.

I am sorry to say that not many stick around long enough to gain all the benefits because when they don't find another partner right away, they leave the organization to "hunt" in other places.

P.W.P. has taught me how to battle loneliness, how to stand on my own two feet and raise a family without a partner in a marriage-oriented society.

MOTHER OF THREE

DEAR ABBY: Last Christmas I received a most unusual Christmas present from a cousin with whom I have exchanged Christmas gifts for many years. It was a note which read:

Dear Billy: You have owed me $20 since June 1968, so instead of buying you a Christmas present this year, I am marking your bill 'PAID IN FULL.' Season's greetings, Your loving Cousin Joe"

Abby, what do you think of a guy like that!

BURNING IN BRADENTON

DEAR BURNING: I think cousin Joe is more practical than sentimental.

Dolphins Get Navy Training

NEW YORK (AP) — The Navy has trained dolphins to plant and retrieve intelligence devices, attack enemy divers and place explosives as part of a top secret $30 million "biological weapons system," CBS reports.

CBS Newsman Morley Safer said on the "60 minutes" program Sunday that the Navy had deployed a dolphin to plant and retrieve from a foreign harbor a device used to detect the type of atomic fuel used in Russian nuclear-powered submarines. He did not elaborate.

The Defense Department disclosed last Sept. 5 that the Navy had trained whales to recover such objects as torpedoes from the ocean floor. The Navy had previously experimented with porpoises and sea lions to detect enemy mines and frogmen.

Researchers have been able to program dolphins "and keep them under control for distances up to several miles," James Fitzgerald, identified as a pioneer in dolphin research, told CBS.

"As an operating vehicle, you can carry a payload of the order of 100 pounds ... You can deliver and retrieve objects, place and position them, you can use acoustics homing, acoustics beam riding, you can use a radio-link or you can have an inertial device in the gadget that they're towing which can tell them to go right or left or they're on course," Fitzgerald said.

Private Capital For Cities Urged

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — With federal funds drying up, Ohio cities want to give themselves a face-lift by enticing private capital into long-delayed urban development.

The carrot that might attract private money is a bill expected in the Ohio Senate later this month—a measure that would allow cities to designate blighted urban land for sale or lease by private developers.

The buyer or lessee, in turn, would have his property taxes frozen for 20 years, an attractive incentive.

"This wouldn't mean a loss in tax revenues," said Sen. Tony P. Hall, D-6 Dayton, "because the land is blighted in the first place. After 20 years it would be reassessed and put back on the tax duplicate at its then current value."

Hall plans to introduce the measure on behalf of Dayton and the Ohio Municipal League. Known as the "impacted cities" bill, it seeks to help those cities which have waited vainly for federal development money after being declared "impacted" under federal legislation.

An impacted city is one which had been declared eligible for federal urban redevelopment money.

Under the bill, private developers would have the power of eminent domain for acquiring property. The city's legislative authority would first have to declare the desired land blighted and deteriorating.

The eminent domain feature, said Hall, will be the biggest obstacle to the bill's passage.

"I've seen this issue come up before," said Hall, "and it's tough, really tough."

The legislature traditionally is conservative about protecting the rights of property owners.

The bill further extends the eminent domain of cities, which now may acquire land only for public purposes, to acquire it for industrial and commercial development—if "such development will result in additional jobs."

Sen. Michael J. Maloney, D-7 Cincinnati, said he is concerned about the constitutionality of "delegating the power of eminent domain to a private authority."

Some attorneys claim this is constitutional, but Maloney said he has asked the Legislative Service Commission, fact-finding arm of the General Assembly, to look into the bill.

"This bill is full of innovations," said Maloney. "It's already been drafted four or five times. We're not yet sure what final form it will take."

Gotherman, spokesman for the Municipal League, said this would mean cities could provide sites both for new industries and for expansion of existing industries.

"We feel good about this legislation," Gotherman said. "Not only will it help the cities economically, but it will eliminate blight. Driving through many of our cities, you can see acres and acres of nothing right in the middle of them. We think this can do the job."

Gotherman listed 41 Ohio cities he said appeared to qualify under the impacted city definition:

Akron, Alliance, Ashtabula, Athens, Berea, Campbell, Canton Chillicothe, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Columbus, Crestline, Cuyahoga Falls, Dayton, Dover, East Cleveland, Elyria, Hamilton, Huron, Ironton, Lincoln Heights, Lorain, Mansfield, Martins Ferry, Massillon, Middletown, New Boston, Niles, Norwood, Painesville, Portsmouth, St. Bernard, Sandusky, Springfield, Steubenville, Toledo, Warren, Woodlawn, Wooster, Youngstown and Zanesville.

Set Copper Operation In Philippines

MANILA (AP) — President Ferdinand E. Marcos approved in principle Monday the proposal of several mining companies, headed by the Lepanto Consolidated Mining Co., to set up the first copper smelter in the country.

The president said the Philippines is scheduled to construct its first copper smelting plant — the first in Southeast Asia — in northern Luzon, another is to be erected in Vebu, central Philippines, and a third will be authorized on Mindanao Island, if needed.

His spokesman, however, said Marcos warned the mining officials that they must see to it that the plants will not create any pollution problem, the prices to be paid for the equipment will be the exact prices, with no rebates and no middlemen involved, and the project will be able to pay its foreign debt amortization costs without the government having to help.

Miniskirts Mean Home

CLARK AIR BASE, Philippines (AP) — "I feel that I have spent six years in hell," said Maj. Jay R. Jensen, one of 20 U.S. prisoners of war released Sunday.

"I feel I have been resurrected, and I'm going to start a new life," the 41-year-old Air Force officer from Sandy, Utah, said.

He said the first things he wanted to do were go skiing and take a vacation with his children. "I want to see my family — my mother and father, brother and sisters and my three children."

Jensen, who was a POW six years, said his wife divorced him three years ago.

Air Force Capt. Herbert B. Ringsdorf of Elba, Ala., said the most exciting part of his return was rediscovering commonplace things he had entirely forgotten.

"The smell of perfume," he said with a grin. "And especially the taste of food I hadn't had for six years."

But what really told the 33-year-old bachelor he was home was "seeing the nurses in miniskirts."

Soviet Party Members Face 'Card Party'

MOSCOW (AP) — Millions of comrades are being investigated to determine their fitness to carry the little red card that labels them among the elite—members of the Soviet Communist party.

It's the first party purge in 19 years.

Every one of the nation's 14,455,321 card holders is subject to the purge. It will take two years to complete, and no one knows how many will be expelled from the party.

A tame version of Mao Tsetung's Cultural Revolution, the "card exchange" was devised by party chieftain Leonid Brezhnev two years ago to "cleanse" the party of "passive and indifferent" comrades.

Special investigative committees have been set up at every level of society—from the small state farm to government ministries—to study members' "everyday behavior, and ideological, political and professional standards."

Behind the ideological rhetoric is a determined Kremlin effort to boost the stagnant economy, revitalize party ranks, crush growing corruption and strengthen the party's influence in Soviet society.

Members have had to turn in their cards for renewal. Only those whose records meet the required standards will get them back with the stamp of approval as the "finest, worthiest representatives of the Soviet people."

Party members control virtually every aspect of political, military and economic life in this country.

Numbering only 6 per cent of the population, they wield at least 95 per cent of the power.

The main targets of the purge are those who have contributed to the failure of many of the party's national economic plans.

A few party officials are immune. They include Brezhnev, his 14 colleagues on the Politburo, the military leadership and scientific elite.

The purge, which began last fall, is the sixth in Soviet history. The worst was one of Stalin's in the 1930s, when nearly a million party members were shot. But Brezhnev has assured the people that "under current conditions, the party can keep its ranks pure without resorting to such measures."

Frank Costello, Gangland Figure, Succumbs At 82

NEW YORK (AP) — For millions of Americans, Frank Costello was the shadowy underworld kingpin with the raspy voice and fidgeting hands who testified in 1951 that he was a reformed bootlegger and gambler.

Costello's hands betrayed his nervousness, but his televised testimony before Sen. Estes Kefauver's crime-investigating committee contributed little to the knowledge about the "prime minister of the underworld."

The racketeer who survived a gangland assassination attempt and won a 14-year battle against deportation died Sunday in Doctors Hospital at 82. He had suffered a heart attack 11 days earlier.

He was reported to have amassed a fortune in prohibition bootlegging, slot machines and real estate.

Hot Energy

In view of the energy crisis news which has become widespread this winter, what about an energy source which has all these attributes:

Its reserves are virtually unlimited, its costs are comparable to other energy sources, it is clean environmentally. And in addition to supplying energy it also provides heat and a major source of desalinized water and can create a favorable atmosphere for agriculture.

This is geothermal energy, which comes from tapping the heat mass found several miles into the Earth. One million kilowatts of energy are being produced by geothermal means in a dozen countries, with nearly one-third of it coming from the geysers area north of San Francisco.

The field is expected to be producing the basic energy requirements of San Francisco by 1975. Even so, geothermal energy development still is in its infancy. Predictions are this energy source will provide between 10 and 20 percent of the nation's total needs by 1985.

A federal government geothermal lease program involving 58 million acres in 14 western states, getting under way soon, could change those estimates considerably.

Speaking Of Your Health

by Lester L. Coleman, M.D.

Why is there so much confusion about different forms of arthritis and rheumatism? Aren't they the same?

Mr. T.I.R., Ky.

Dear Mr. R.:

Your question shows evidence of the confusion that exists in the minds of many people who use both words interchangeably.

Rheumatism can be considered the general term applied to a great number of conditions, acute and chronic, associated with stiffness and soreness of the muscles, the joints, and the tendons.

The classification established by the American Rheumatism Association lists about 100 conditions, all included in this complex disorder.

Arthritis might be considered as one of the subdivisions of rheumatism.

There are two major forms of arthritis. The first, rheumatoid arthritis, is a chronic inflammatory condition that affects the joints and the tissues around them. This type seems to occur about three times more frequently in women than in men.

There is vast scientific literature about the technical changes that occur within the joints. Recent advances in chemistry help to differentiate the various subdivisions of rheumatoid arthritis, and to point the way to some of the newer forms of treatment.

Salicylates, the basic component of aspirin, still remain one of the most effective forms of treatment for rheumatoid arthritis. Many other drugs, and cortisone, are used for specific cases.

In addition, active and passive exercise and physio-therapy are planned and used to reduce the changes that occur in the muscles and in the joints.

A very distinct form of rheumatoid arthritis that occurs in children is known as Still's disease, or juvenile rheumatoid arthritis.

To repeat, rheumatoid arthritis is the first large classification of arthritis.

The second is osteoarthritis, a chronic condition that seems to occur more often in the older age groups and in those who are excessively overweight.

Injury to one or more joints can be responsible, too, for this type of arthritis.

Osteoarthritis causes degenerative changes within the joints. Hard, knobby enlargements of the joints, the spine, the wrists, the shoulders and the feet are deformities which may later interfere with the ease of movement.

These two forms of arthritis are distinguished by the doctor after studies of the blood, and with X-rays. When the exact diagnosis is established, treatment can begin.

Massage, ultrasonic vibrations, mud packs, and forms of water therapy are used in addition to cortisone.

Surgery has been remarkably successful in special cases. It can relieve the incapacitation associated with some forms of arthritis.

A constant note of warning must be given to the many people suffering with arthritis who fall prey to the quackery of gadgets and "miracle" devices that serve no function except to deplete their purse.

NEW YORK (AP) — One of the bitterest commentaries on the administration's moratorium on subsidized housing was delivered earlier this month by Dempsey Travis, a black mortgage banker, but it went almost unnoticed.

The inattention can be attributed in part to the small attendance at the midwinter meeting of the United Mortgage Bankers of America, a black group of which Travis is president. He claims they couldn't afford to come.

"Sixty to seventy per cent of all black architects came into being because of HUD programs, and they'll be going out of business for the same reason," Travis said. Many have already closed down, he said.

The federal government says the programs, called Section 235 and Section 236, were ineffective in solving the problem of housing the poor. But Travis claims the move "has a racist impact and a classis impact that is unmistakable."

It will set back racial equality in housing by 25 years, he said. "At the same time, the whites will go galloping along with their 2.4 million annual new housing starts." Never has such a total been attained.

As this scenario unfolds, he said, "the establishment is accelerating the housing abandonment crisis in the urban areas through excessive high taxes, poor schools, ineffective police protection — all combining to produce a high crime rate."

The result, said Travis, will be demonstrated in more ways than the collapse of black architectural and building firms. It could, he suggested, erupt into more violent friction between white and black.

This is how he interprets the motivations and goals of the moratorium:

"The federal and the city fathers have finally concurred in the fact that a city with a 30 per cent to 50 per cent black population is politically dangerous.

"The best way certain to stop this trend is to withdraw all the monies in the form of subsidies and other ancillary services with the result being abandonment."

The effect, he said, will be forfeiture of property to the city for taxes. "to be subsequently sold to an establishment developer." This developer then will build high-income apartments, "which is a 1973 way of saying 'For whites only.'"

As viewed by Travis, the market for old housing was beginning to slip as new developments were erected. Now, he said, all housing becomes more valuable, but poor housing especially. "Traditionally, the black and the poor have provided the last profit in housing before it was torn down. Traditionally, that profit from the poor was greater than the original profit from the affluent ..."

Why then did the National Association of Real Estate Boards support the moratorium as necessary, and declare that subsidies "have had the effect of nurturing a permanent class of middle-income Americans who look to the taxpayer for assistance?"

Theirs is "an establishment position to support absentee ownership in old ghetto apartment buildings," Travis said. The realtors who were and still are the architects of white housing covenants see big profits in fostering a dual market based on skin pigment and class.

Travis' belief that a plot exists probably represents a large portion of black sentiment, but it may be received by less impassioned minds as biased, and even destructively so. Nevertheless, it demonstrates an amazing communications gap between Washington leadership and its constituency.

Asked why he spoke in such bitter terms, Travis replied: "I intended it that way. It's time for someone to tell the truth."

Sixties Radicalism

By JEFFREY HART

Lewis Feuer, the sociologist, is a sort of Ernie Pyle of the campus wars in the 1960s. He taught at Berkeley, then fled to Toronto at the peak of the troubles, a wise move in my opinion; but reflecting upon what he had seen, he brought his professional insights to bear in an important book, "The Conflict of Generations" (1969). Now Feuer has gone beyond that book in a startling article published in the "Annals of the American Academy of Political Science," and he throws a garish light on the campus-based radical movement of the 1960's.

First of all, Feuer notices that campus turbulence seems to occur about every ten years, a decade of activism alternating with a decade of quiescence. "A socialist student movement was active in the years from 1905 to 1914 . . . There was only peripheral student political activity during the decade of the twenties; the colleges and universities remained virtually unaffected by the bitter emotions that were provoked by the events of the Sacco-Vanzetti case. In 1931, a new period of student activism began which lasted till 1940 . . . The years which followed from 1950 to 1960 were years of political calm. Nineteen-sixty, however, saw the first burgeoning of militant student activism . . . The seventies have thus far been relatively tranquil years, confirming the pattern of periodicity."

So, far, so good, and Feuer is convincing. Unfortunately he has no equally persuasive theory to explain the periodicity he describes, though here the theories of some other sociologists shed a good deal of light. Nevertheless, in the body of his article he goes on to notice something quite special about the 1960's radical phase, something which helped to create the special atmosphere of the period. "The last half of the sixties also saw the coalescence of student activism with the use of hallucinogenic drugs; this has been the most distinctive characteristic of the new revolutionary consciousness."

It is not generally known, for example, how large a role drugs played in the riots at the 1968 Democratic Convention. According to Feuer: "The culminating achievement of hallucinogenic politics was the disruption caused by demonstrators at the Democratic National Convention in 1968. A survey of a sample of the disrupters showed that almost four-fifths of the respondents—432 in number—were imbibing marijuana at least once a week, 40 per cent were taking hashish weekly, 29 per cent were consumers of LSD, 11 per cent of methedrine, 10 per cent of mescaline, and 4 per cent of heroin."

In short, the great anti-war demonstration was a fantastic drug binge. To take only one of the foregoing statistics, if about one-third of the people you are dealing with are LSD users, well, you are in trouble. Then add the other statistics: heroin, hashish and all the rest fueling the idealism celebrated in prose and verse by Tom Wicker and the rest of the liberal press. Concludes Feuer: "Never in the history of world politics had so much revolutionary consciousness been the ideological reflex of drugs, a 'false consciousness' of chemically concocted confusion."

But if Chicago in 1968 was one of the big "highs" of the radical movement of the sixties, there were plenty of lows, too, and Feuer has investigated these in fascinating detail. Following up the careers of some of the charismatic leaders of the time, he introduces us to the Grand Guignol of the Left political underground, a scene of violence, factional brutality, murder and suicide. In the most vivid way imaginable, the revolution consumed the revolutionaries.

This dark side of the sixties movement will be the subject of later column, but any college teacher who lived through the period and saw some of his best students destroyed by drugs — and by equally poisonous political and social attitudes — will read Feuer with a chill of recognition.

Millionaire At Age 34, Man Measures Success By Cash

LOS ANGELES (AP) — "I would rather play the game of money than do anything else. I've tasted blood and I want more, but I am not a man living a life of quiet desperation," says 34-year-old millionaire Peter Traynor.

In four years he has put together a $20 million business that invests money for physicians. The company, Leverage Funding Systems, showed a $200,000 profit the first year and a $2 million profit last year.

The company's stock has shot from $1 to $20 a share.

Traynor says, "I amass money because it measures the success of what I am doing, the way time measures a runner's speed. I am compelled to know how good I am."

Traynor is good—the ultimate salesman, say some of his associates.

In high school in Boston he turned an afternoon lawn mowing job into an $18,000-a-year part-time landscape business by his junior year.

He came to California 10 years ago and started selling insurance. His first year total was $3 million, second year $8.5 million and third year $12 million.

"I came to California to be successful," he recalled in an interview. "I observed successful men and emulated their style, their techniques, their disciplines. Everything I do is geared to success, every step I take is calculated to take me closer to where I want to go."

Traynor quit his insurance job, built his investment business and is now branching out into the movie business. Hoping to attract the thrill show fans, he has filmed "Steel Arena," about a daredevil stunt driver.

Traynor, who is married and has four children, rises each working day at 6:30 a.m., slips into a sweat suit, drives his $20,000 Mercedes from Beverly Hills to UCLA and jogs seven miles.

Where does the money game end?

"By the time you reach the goal you set out to reach, there's another one ahead of you," Traynor says. "So the game goes on."

Westfall Students Of Week Are Named From Senior Class

By PAM SCHOOLEY
Westfall Senior students are being saluted by the Mustang Country Staff this week as Seniors of the Week.

DONNA BROWN

Donna Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David D. Brown Sr., resides at Route 1, Williamsport, and is enrolled in the business course of study.

At the school that she previously attended, Donna was active in the Library Club, Debate Club, Pep Club, and the Chorus. In her spare time, she enjoys reading, hiking, embroidery, cooking, knitting, and working on puzzles.

Donna plans to attend Weaver Airline School in September at Kansas City, Mo.

Rick Harris, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Harris, resides near Derby, and is enrolled in vocational courses.

RICK HARRIS

Rick's hobbies include drag races, driving cars, and working on cars.

In the future Rick plans to get involved in law enforcement.

Debra Ann Cook, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Cook, resides in Williamsport, and is enrolled in a business course of study.

DEBBIE COOK

At school, Debra has participated on the basketball and softball teams in GAA, in the Ski Club and Science Club, and also in FNA.

Debra's likes are Brent, water-skiing, bowling, swimming, sewing, and sketching pictures.

John Romine resides in Columbus with Mrs. D. E. Keller and is enrolled in the business course of study at school.

REBECCA CAUDILL

In his spare time he likes to work on cars. John also enjoys playing basketball and pool. Also included in his hobbies is music.

After graduation John plans to work. Rebecca Caudill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill R. Caudill, resides at Route 3, Circleville, and is enrolled in a general course of study.

At school she is an active member of the FHA. She enjoys hobbies such as cooking, sewing, reading, and watching movies.

After graduation Rebecca plans to attend Weaver Airline Personnel School in Kansas City, Mo.

Kevin Hulse, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ellwyn Hulse, resides in Williamsport, and is enrolled in a business course of study.

KEVIN HULSE

Kevin has been a member of the Varsity W for four years and has also been a member of the Cross Country team for two years. He was basketball manager for three years, football manager for two years, and baseball manager for one year. Kevin was a member of the track team for two years and also participated in FBLA. His hobbies are swimming, horse-training, calf-roping, and just having fun.

LINDA CONRAD

Kevin may attend Clark County Institute in the future to enter in the field of civil construction.

Linda Conrad, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom F. Conrad, resides at Route 1, New Holland, and is enrolled in the college preparatory course of study.

Linda has been a two-year member of the Latin Club and a four-year member of both the Drama Club and Chorus. She is also a member of the Ensemble at school. Linda is presently the treasurer of the Drama Club and secretary-treasurer for the Chorus. She is a member of the New Holland United Methodist Church and president of the District United Methodist Youth Council. Linda has participated in 4-H work for eight years.

Linda lists her hobbies as Thom Scott, drama, singing, sewing, and working with children.

Following graduation, Linda plans to attend Otterbein College for two years and also Sarrett College in Tennessee for two years. She wants to become a Christian social worker.

Senior Cheerleaders Will Graduate In May Ceremony

By CINDY BEATTY
One of the most energetic groups at WHS are the cheerleaders. Certainly this was true of the three senior Varsity cheerleaders.

STEPHANIE NEFF

Captain this year was Stephanie Neff, a six year veteran. She lives with parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Neff, of Route 2, Circleville.

Stephanie said she would miss getting into the games free. "One of my best times was cheering in the rain during the '71 football game with Adena," she recalls.

Pam Williams lives in Williamsport with Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Williams. She has been a cheerleader for five years.

PAM WILLIAMS

When asked what she would miss most about cheerleading, she said "The bus rides to the games and the chats with the coaches. The best times I ever had were at camps and the '71 football game with Piketon."

Karen Fausnaugh has been a cheerleader for five years. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Fausnaugh, Route 3, Circleville.

KAREN FAUSNAUGH

Karen said that she would miss the bus rides and doing the cheer. "To the Left," Karen stated that one of the best times she has as being a cheerleader was going to camp at Rio Grande.

Cheerleaders And Majorettes Stage Program

By Wendy Neff
At the last regularly scheduled basketball game Friday night, the majorettes and cheerleaders made the scene accompanied by the WHS Pep Band.

Lynn Stillins; Cathy Alkire, captain Cindy Schleich; Vicki Skaggs; Janie Henson and Connie Drummond, the J.V. cheerleaders, did a pom-pom routine to "Saint James' Infirmary" between games.

During halftime the 1972 majorettes, Head Majorette Bev McDill, and Melanie Bliss, Diane Snyder and Tracy Fraas, appeared for the last time this year. They did a baton routine to "Alexander's Ragtime Band", and a glove routine to "Brothers and Sisters."

Then joined by the varsity cheerleaders, Tess Neff, Pam Williams, Jill Long, Tina Barthen, and Karen Fausnaugh, the combined group did a pom-pom routine to "Rockin' Robin." Mickey Horn, also a cheerleader, was not present.

The Pep Band will play at the Freshman Tournament on Friday and Saturday this weekend.

Hoof Beats

NHS

The Westfall Chapter of the National Honor Society is planning for the county banquet. It will be held April 12 at Westfall High School. All this year's initiates and present members from Westfall, Logan Elm, and Teays Valley are invited for the dinner and awards program.

Officers at WHS for this year are: President, Chuck Adams; Vice President, Ruthan Rogers; Secretary-Treasurer, Cindy Beatty; Sgt. at Arms, Steve Johnson; News Reporter, Debra Bowsher.

Final Freshman Basketball Are Interviewed

This week we are introducing the four remaining members of the hard-working freshman team. They are:

Jim Fausnaugh, a forward, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Fausnaugh of Route 3, Circleville;

Drew Henson, a guard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Henson, Williamsport; Tim Lett, a guard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lett, Route 1, Orient;

David Malone, a forward, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Malone of Route 1, Williamsport.

All of these boys have worked very hard in practices and in games and have proved themselves valuable members of the winning Frosh team. These boys show great promise for the year to come.

Congratulations to Coach Wilcox for the great freshman record and the fine coaching of the Mustang Team.

Basketball Sport For Girls, Too

By CINDY BEATTY

Who said basketball was for boys only?

It definitely is not an all male sport at WHS. Girls have been practicing every Monday and Wednesday night for about two months to perfect the game of basketball.

They have had only one scrimmage, but would like to have games with area schools. Juniors and seniors make up the Varsity team and sophomores and freshmen are on the J.V. team. Miss Hoffman, a teacher at Jackson Elementary is the new GAA adviser.

On February 7, both the Jr. Varsity and the Varsity teams of Westfall defeated Logan Elm. The final scores were: J. R. 20-10, and the Varsity 10-9.

Sophomore Is Welcomed

DOUG WILLIAMS

By CINDY BEATTY

"People at Westfall are some of the friendliest people that I know." This was a comment made by Doug Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Williams of Route 3, Orient. Doug, a sophomore, recently came to Mustang Country from Grove City High School.

While at Grove City he was active in the church's District Impact Team and Victorious Christian Youth. Doug played freshman basketball and participated in marching band which coincide with his basketball and music likes along with Spanish and reading.

Doug noted the contrasting differences between the schools are teaching material, attitudes of teachers, and communication between students and teachers. A factor in determining variance would be that the student population at Westfall is about a fourth of that at Grove City.

After graduation, Doug would like to enter Mount Vernon Nazarene College, Mt. Vernon, Ohio.

The WHS student body is proud to have such a friendly newcomer and greets him with the best of luck.

Jessel Attacks American TV

HAIFA (AP) — "Television has ruined America, and it could ruin Israel too," warns American comedian George Jessel.

Jessel, on a two-week visit to Israel with 120 Canadian tourists, told a reporter Sunday: "Don't extend your TV broadcasting time. TV has ruined America and it will ruin you too, if you don't keep it within its present two-hours-a-day limit."

Trail Talk

By PAM WILLIAMS
Just call him "Leggs Wilcox".

Did Miss Hoffman say what we think she did? Ask C. B.

Who do the majorettes and cheerleaders imitate at practices?

Does anyone speak Mr. Boleman's language?

Congratulations to the girls basketball team!

Wilkins Rips Backpedaling On Rights

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — Roy Wilkins, director of the NAACP, has accused the Nixon Administration of "attacking the fruits" gained by blacks in the 1960s.

Wilkins, in a speech at the Jewish Community Forum Monday night, charged that the administration was attacking the civil rights movement in four areas.

He said budget cuts in the area of the Office of Economic Opportunity have been "a disaster for the poor and blacks in the inner city."

Wilkins accused Nixon, with labor, of "shutting the Negro out of gainful employment as much as possible. He said this is being done by failure to enforce the Federal Contract Compliance regulation which guarantees minority groups jobs on federal projects.

"It's dead," Wilkins said. "No one is asking 'Do you hire black and Spanish surnamed people?'"

Wilkins blamed unequal schooling for racial tension in the armed forces.

"There are tensions between the races in the armed services because blacks went to interior schools, and when they took service tests they ranked lowest and got unsatisfactory jobs," he said.

Wilkins said the fourth area of concern was voting rights.

"Watch for efforts to water down the voting rights act of 1965," he said. "They tried it in 1970."

Nixon To Speak On Vietnam Peace

KEY BISCAYNE, Fla. (AP) — President Nixon pays tribute today to America's returning prisoners of war and those who supported his policies during a four-year search for peace in Vietnam.

Nixon stops at Columbia, S.C., enroute back to Washington to address a joint session of the South Carolina Legislature, one of a number that passed resolutions applauding his strategy for ending the Vietnam war.

The President, who flew to Florida Friday, found several earlier opportunities during the holiday weekend to talk about the prisoners and the war's end.

Ban On Jets Heard By High Court

WASHINGTON (AP) — A California city will try to convince the Supreme Court today that local governments have the right to ban jet planes from using airports at certain times of day.

The City of Burbank's 1970 ordinance—aimed at cutting noise near the Hollywood-Burbank Airport so residents could get more sleep—has been ruled unconstitutional by two lower federal courts.

But the city, state and now the federal government are expected to tell the justices in today's oral argument that Burbank's ordinance does not conflict with federal jurisdiction over air traffic.

Attorneys for Lockheed Air Terminal, Inc., which owns the airport, Pacific Southwest Air Lines and the Air Line Pilots Association disagree.

By banning jet flights between 11 p.m. and 7 a.m., they have argued in written briefs, Burbank is in essence regulating air traffic, which is a federal responsibility.

Lockheed also has argued that the ban, if applied nationwide, would adversely affect interstate commerce in violation of the constitution.

Scott Wants Pipe Allowed On Amtrak

WASHINGTON (AP) — Chief Justice Warren E. Burger, whose complaint led Amtrak to ban cigar-and pipe-smoking from some trains, has been asked to reconsider.

Senate Republican Leader Hugh Scott, in a letter to Burger, says he's so addicted to his pipes that he would not travel on Amtrak without them if he could help it.

Scott reminded the chief justice that Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield and House Republican Leader Gerald Ford also are partial to pipes.

"May I enter a mild disclaimer?" Scott said in referring to Burger's complaint last Nov. 30 that prompted Amtrak to ban cigars and pipes from its club cars on the Metroliner run between Washington and New York.

"Or should I back off with a mea culpa?"

"Could it be dicta, obiter, some word go to the secretary of DOT or to the king of rails, to the effect that pipe smokers may enjoy the use of some part of the presently interdicted area for the indulgence of their contemplative addiction?"

"May it please the court!"

There was no immediate rejoinder from Burger's office. But likely any response to Scott's complaint would come from the Department of Transportation, overseer of Amtrak.

Collection Of Glass 163 Million Pounds

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — Owens-Illinois of Toledo announced today it collected enough old glass bottles and jars last year to fill 3,000 freight cars.

The company bought 163 million pounds of old glass from the public to recycle at its glass container plants. The firm said it paid more than $1.6 million for the waste glass.

Toxic Mushrooms Spark Food Recall

WASHINGTON (AP) — Recalls were underway today for some frozen foods which could contain botulism toxin.

The Food and Drug Administration Monday said Stouffers Food Co. was recalling four products which could contain mushrooms contaminated by the bacteria.

FDA also announced Monday a recall in Michigan for frozen pizzas made by a firm which received the canned mushrooms.

"Stouffers expects to complete their recall by the end of Tuesday," FDA said in a statement.

"FDA has no evidence that any of these Stouffers' products are contaminated, but on the basis of present knowledge all must be considered suspect."

The spokesman said Stouffers and the pizza manufacturer, Fabbri Family Foods of Ossineke, Mich., had received canned mushrooms from United Canning Corp. of East Palestine, Ohio.

The FDA over the weekend ordered the recall of 20 lots of 3,000 cans of mushrooms each after botulism toxin was found in some lots by the company and reported to the FDA. FDA tests confirmed presence of the toxin in four lots, and a spokesman said the other 16 lots also could be contaminated.

The spokesman said Stouffers, of Solon, Ohio, was recalling "products that could contain mushrooms from United. These products are frozen green beans and mushrooms, frozen escalloped chicken and noddles, frozen tuna noodle casserole and frozen cream of mushroom soup."

He urged persons who purchased those items since Feb. 7 to return them to the stores where they were purchased.

The pizzas being recalled were sold to bars and grocery stores under the Pappa Fabbri brand name. The spokesman said the pizzas had been distributed within a 100-mile radius of Ossineke, which is about 150 miles north of Detroit.

He emphasized that it was not known if any suspected or known contaminated mushrooms were used in the pizzas.

All the lots of mushrooms are composed of large-sized cans which would have been sold through wholesale distributors or restaurants and not for home use.

The mushrooms were distributed to wholesalers in Illinois, Pennsylvania, New York and Ohio.

POW Mentally Constructed Dream Girl

CLARK AIR BASE, Philippines (AP) — Capt. Michael C. Lane has a dream girl born of 2,000 nights in a North Vietnamese prison. When he spoke about her Monday she seemed as real as the girl next door.

"A nice figure, of course," said the 30-year-old bachelor whose parents live at Charlotte, N.C. "A cute face, not necessarily Hollywood. Preferably blonde, a girl that enjoys athletics, and if not good at it, at least a trier."

"A bit of intelligence, and socially adept," the slim, smiling Lane continued. "I pictured her together with the help of the married men who recalled the virtues they admired in their wives. If you know someone like her, tell her to call me," he said, "I'll make her my wife."

Lane was one of the 20 American fighter-pilot prisoners of war flown out of Hanoi to Clark Air Base Sunday. He and five other POWs were permitted by U.S. military officials to meet with reporters and discuss how life felt on the outside.

Lane was shot down in December 1966 while flying an escort mission in a phantom jet over North Vietnam.

Women was one of the topics allowed to be discussed at the interview.

"I have been out of Hanoi only 24 hours and I have five or six phone numbers already," he said, "and I've kissed every nurse in sight."

He was asked what was the worst news he has heard since his release.

"The demise of the miniskirt while I was inside," Lane replied. "I only saw one, and that was in London in early 1966."

Did he despair in prison? "No, my release was always just six months away. We always used that sight, so we had something to aim for."

Lane was born in New Haven, Conn., and graduated from the University of Notre Dame in 1964. He joined the Air Force the same year.

While in prison he developed "972 alternative plans" for his after-prison life, Lane said. Now he has narrowed them down to one: college and a degree in international relations.

"I would like to become an air attaché maybe," he said. "Or a teacher. We've been fed the Communist side so much that I want to find out what the truth is. I would like to pass it on to others ..."

"I am coming home a better man, more mentally prepared." He said, "I know what I'm looking for now."

CINEMA FEATURE—Tom Laughlin (center) is pictured in his title role in "Billy Jack" as he is taken away by Sheriff Clark Howat (left) following a gunfight over the right of a woman to run a Freedom School. Delores Taylor also stars in the Technicolor feature which opens Wednesday at the Cinema Circleville.

OHIO WEATHER SUMMARY

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Following is the Ohio weather summary from the National Weather Service:

Snow spread into northwestern Ohio overnight and was expected to spread across the state today, possibly mixed with rain in central and southern counties. Most of the snow was forecast for northern counties, where one to two inches of additional accumulation was expected.

The snow and rain ended nearly three days without precipitation in the state.

The snow is associated with a cold front that's expected to move east of the state by evening. A few snow flurries will persist near Lake Erie. Additional flurries are expected Wednesday when more cold air moves in from the northwest.

Temperatures Wednesday were expected to reach the 30s and low 40s, before the new batch of cold air hits the state. The remainder of the week is expected to be cold.

Temperatures at dawn today ranged from the low to mid 30s under generally cloudy skies.

Princess Anne III

During Ethiopian Trip

LONDON (AP) — Princess Anne has been taken ill during her visit to Ethiopia and is suffering from "tiredness and a stomach upset," according to a message received at Buckingham Palace from the royal party.

The condition of the 22-year-old daughter of Queen Elizabeth II is causing no concern, the palace said Sunday.

OEA Stays Out Of Rights Fight

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio Education Association will remain neutral in the debate over the Equal Rights Amendment.

The OEA has more than 50,000 women among its 88,000 members.

Donald Traxler, OEA president elect, said "we have not had a push from our membership or any of the locals one way or another."

The ERA has been ratified by 27 states and debate on the amendment resumes today in the House State Government Committee.

Nation Divided By Foul Weather

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A strip of foul weather along the Mississippi Valley divided the nation today into two spheres of largely fair weather.

As arctic cold pushed into the northern Mississippi Valley, snow resulted and spilled over into the Great Lakes region.

Rain and drizzle were common in the mid-valley region. Drizzle also dampened extreme southern Texas.

Temperatures before dawn ranged from 12 at International Falls, Minn., to 65 at Key West, Fla.

WHY BUY IT IF YOU DON'T HAVE TO?

Some of our business customers have been considering the purchase of their own phones. We are the first to admit that there are advantages to owning telephone equipment—if you're a phone company. We've done it for years. However, what's good for us is not necessarily good for you.

A telephone system starts out costing big money. (You're buying more than just a black plastic box with a dial on it.) And it never increases in value. The longer you use it the more it depreciates. And so does your original capital investment.

Then, there's maintenance. For a simple system you'll call in outside help now and then. A very complex set-up may require that you put a man on staff so your vital communications don't grind to a halt in the midst of a business day.

As you can see, owning a phone system is not as simple as it may seem. We've spent decades at it. That's why we can provide your business with the service, equipment and expert advice you need.

Call us for a consultation. There is no extra charge for information. And, of course, there's no obligation to buy any equipment.

Waverly Class AA Prep Cage Champions

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—“It’s great news,” said veteran Waverly Coach Carroll Hawhee. “I’m sure the kids will really eat it up.”

Hawhee had just been told his 17-1 Tigers were The Associated Press Class AA regular season state high school basketball champions.

Canton Lehman won the Class AAA title and Gnadenhutten Indian Valley South the Class A crown Monday.

“It makes us real proud. It’s never happened to Lehman before,” said Coach Don Eddins of the No. 1 Polar Bars, 18-0 during the regular season.

It was the second straight Class A poll championship for Indian Valley South and Coach Charles Huggins said, “We’re highly honored to be No. 1 two years in a row.”

Indian Valley South, 18-0 this year, is on the state’s longest victory streak of 44 games and starts defending its Ohio tournament crown next week against Guernsey Catholic in the New Concord Sectional.

All three top-ranked teams have excellent scoring balance and stringent defenses.

Canton Lehman, the 1971 Class AA state tournament ruler, is only four over the AA enrollment limit this season. The Polar Bears, however, still outscore foes 61-41 and have three regulars in double figures.

Waverly, which piled up a 9-1 record against Class AAA opponents, has all five of its starters averaging in double figures, headed by John Shoemaker’s 17 points.

4. Hamilton Taft, 15-2, 116.
5. Columbus South, 15-2, 114.
6. Newark, 16-2, 103.
7. Springfield South, 15-2, 82.
8. Chillicothe, 15-3, 77.
9. Boardman, 15-3, 52.
10. Mansfield Senior, 15-3, 38.

Other schools receiving 10 or more points: Youngstown Ursuline 36, Lorain King 33, Toledo St. Francis 27, Delaware Hayes 20, Columbus East 15, Canton South and Cleveland St. Joseph 13, Cincinnati Princeton 12, Cleveland Kennedy 11, Cleveland St. Ignatius 10.

Gophers Take Over Big Ten Lead

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

“We feel like we should be in first place. We’re the best team,” Minnesota Coach Bill Musselman said of his fourth-ranked Gophers.

And, thanks to a helping hand from upstart Ohio State—or perhaps slippery hands by Purdue—that’s where Minnesota found itself today, mainly perched atop the Big Ten Conference basketball standings.

“You can’t count this team out,” Musselman said after the Gophers, trailing Illinois by three points at the intermission, rallied for an 82-73 victory Tuesday night. “We were 1-2 in the league and we were down at halftime tonight but still came back.”

Now they’re 7-2, percentage points ahead of 10th-rated Indiana, which boosted its record to 8-3 with a 75-65 victory over Michigan State. And No. 17 Purdue, which started the night’s action atop the Big Ten, tumbled to third at 7-3 as the Buckeyes thumped the Boilermakers 102-79.

past Michigan State. Downing got 15 in the first half, then Laskowski took over with 14 the rest of the way.

Wardell Jackson and Luke Witte combined for 50 Buckeye points in the upset of Purdue, a ragged affair in which 61 fouls and 49 turnovers were committed.

It was Dwight Lamar’s last home game for the 12th-ranked Ragin’ Cajuns. They gave him a huge trophy—and Lamar responded with a gift of his own. He scored a game-high 28 points against Arkansas as Southwestern Louisiana finished unbeaten in the Southland Conference for the second year in a row. Alabama kept its Southeastern Conference title hopes alive by beating Vanderbilt, but the Crimson Tide remained one-game behind unranked Tennessee, an 87-83 victory over Florida, in the SEC standings. Kentucky, with sophomore Kevin Grevey scoring 40 points, beat Georgia 99-86 and trails Tennessee by 1½ games in the SEC.

Eddie Volker’s layup after a steal with eight seconds left gave Tennessee its victory over Florida. Volker came off the bench to spark the Vols in the waning seconds.

Ray Amann took only three shots—two in the extra periods—from the floor for Richmond and he made all of them, to the chagrin of Virginia Tech. Amann’s first shot in the overtime periods, was a tipin with 1:18 left in the first extra period. That tied the score and sent the game into another overtime. Then he sank a tipin with 11 seconds to play in the second extra period to win the game for the Spiders.

Buckeyes Ravage Purdue, 102-79

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Fred Taylor glanced over a box score, noticing his Ohio State squad shot 61 per cent in its 102-79 upset of Purdue.

“You don’t have to shoot a boatload of times to win, but you destroy yourself when you take those simple shots,” Taylor said after the triumph that knocked Purdue from the Big Ten basketball lead Monday night.

The Buckeyes, 5-5 to the Boilermakers’ 7-3 conference record, took 16 fewer shots, but their field goal percentage was nearly 24 points better.

“We really exercised good judgment,” Taylor said of Ohio State’s second victory over Purdue this season. The Buckeyes are 11-9 and the Boilermakers 14-6 overall.

“The same thing happened to us at home against them,” said Purdue mentor Fred Schaus. “They hustled, hit the boards well and were physical.”

Schaus called it the worst game in the conference this season for his team, adding, “You would think we would be ready to play. We had a lousy workout here Sunday. I had a feeling this would happen.”

Use Glasses To Aid Game, Palmer Says

NEW YORK (AP) — If your golf game goes sour, don’t necessarily consult your pro, contact your oculist, suggests Arnold Palmer.

“Spectacles have given me a better depth perception,” the fairway immortal from Latrobe, Pa., said Monday at the annual National Awards Dinner of the Metropolitan Golf Writers Association.

“I think glasses might improve the games of a lot of players, even some of the younger ones, but most avoid spectacles as if they were a plague. They’re too much trouble.”

Palmer, 43, wore large, steelrimmed specs in winning the Bob Hope Classic at Palm Springs, Calif., nine days ago —his first tournament triumph since the Westchester Classic in the summer of 1971.

The popular golfing millionaire was one of five all-time greats honored at the dinner at the Americana Hotel. The others were Jack Nicklaus, Ben Hogan, the late Bob Jones and the late Walter Hagen, chosen by a poll of national golf writers.

Jones and Hagen were represented by their look-alike sons. Nicklaus also received a trophy as the 1972 Player of the Year on the strength of his five tournament triumphs and more than $320,000 official winnings.

Joe Frazier Like Fish Out Of Water

ROTONDA WEST, Fla. (AP) — Smokin’ Joe Frazier is hungry for a rematch with heavyweight boxing champion George Foreman, but he’s not quite ready to challenge Mark Spitz.

“My big aim in swimming was to keep from drowning,” said the 215-pound Philadelphia strongboy. “It was like I was throwin’ punches at the water and the water kept hittin’ back.”

Frazier and nine other athletes of note are participating in the first annual Superstars Carnival, matching skills in sports other than their specialties.

Joe tried swimming ... briefly.

He plunged into the pool for a 50-meter heat race and began flailing away, like he would after backing a ring opponent into a corner.

Race driver Peter Revson stroked away at a quick pace with skier Jean-Claude Killy and pole vaulter Bob Seagren in reasonable pursuit.

Frazier just kept on swingin’.

After 20 meters, Smokin’ Joe was 10 meters behind. At the halfway point, he looked like a man in need of a life preserver. Frazier threw up his hands and said: “I quit!”

Spitz’ seven gold medals was safe.

TOP SVC RESERVE TEAM—The Logan Elm High School reserve basketball team was undefeated this year by Scioto Valley Conference opponents. The little Braves had a 7-0 record in the league and a 14-4 overall record. Members of the team are, seated from the left: Phil Manson, Pontius, Mitch

TWO POINTS—Kim Pollock of the Cincinnati Spinners demonstrates the form that garners him over 16 points per game. The Easter Seal Society says fans will be amazed at the players speed and performance this Saturday at 8 p.m. when the Spinners play against the Columbus Buckeye Wheelers at Mill St. Gym. Proceeds will be used to help the handicapped in Pickaway County.

Don Johnson Named Bowler Of The Year

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — Don Johnson has been named Bowler of the Year by The Sporting News for the second consecutive year. The selection of the Akron native was announced Monday night at a dinner in Winston-Salem, N.C., where a $90,000 Professional Bowlers Association tournament starts today. The balloting was done through a poll of PBA members.

Nets Top Chaps, Lose Brian Taylor

UNIONDALE, N.Y. (AP) — For the New York Nets, there was some good and some bad.

First the good. Billy Paultz scored 26 points and grabbed 18 rebounds and John Roche added 24 points, leading the Nets past the Dallas Chaparrals 128-99 Monday afternoon.

Now, the bad. Brian Taylor, a top candidate for rookie of the year honors in the American Basketball Association, dislocated two fingers in a collision with Dallas' Gene Kennedy during the second period.

Taylor won't travel with the Nets to Greensboro, N.C. for tonight's game against the Carolina Cougars.

Neither will forward Tom Washington, who hurt a knee over the weekend and didn't suit up for the Dallas game.

In the only other pro basketball game, All-Star forward Willie Wise scored 43 points to lead Utah to a 99-89 victory over the San Diego Conquistadors in an ABA night game. By winning the Stars increased their lead in the ABA West to 3½ games over idle Indiana.

UCLA Atop Cage Ratings

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Big Three in the fight for the Big Ten championship also are battling for a high spot in the national major-college basketball rankings dominated by UCLA and North Carolina State.

Minnesota, 16-2, remained fourth in The Associated Press' Top Twenty poll released today while Indiana, 15-5, moved from 11th to 10th despite splitting two games that dropped it into third place behind Purdue and Minnesota in the Big Ten Conference.

Purdue, 14-5, which broke a first-place tie with Indiana, last week joined the Top Twenty, being named 17th in nationwide voting by sports writers and sportscasters.

UCLA, 21-0, won three times last week and received 39 firstplace votes and 816 points while second-place North Carolina State, also 21-0 after two victories, got the other two first-place ballots and 740 points.

Long Beach State, 22-1 stayed third with 637 points. Minnesota received 560 points and Marquette, 20-2, continued fifth with 537 points.

Completing the Top Ten were North Carolina; Providence, which moved from eighth to seventh; Maryland, which advanced to eighth from 10th; Houston, which dropped from seventh to ninth, and Indiana.

St. John's of New York, ninth last week, headed the Second Ten, followed by Southwestern Louisiana, Kansas State, Memphis State, New Mexico, Missouri, Purdue, Alabama, Virginia Tech and Jacksonville. Brigham Young, 20th last week, dropped from the rankings.

The Top Twenty, with firstplace votes in parentheses, season records and total points. Points tabulated on basis of 20-18-16-14-12-10 etc.:

2 Horses, Jockey Hurt During Race

ARCADIA, Calif. (AP) — Two horses—a champion and a foreign challenger—had to be destroyed and two jockeys narrowly escaped death in a tragically unusual set of accidents in the Santa Anita feature race on the Washington Birthday holiday.

Autobiography, easily worth a million dollars and the Eclipse Award winner as handicap horse of 1972, broke his left front leg and threw rider Eddie Belmonte after entering the last turn.

An instant later, just 1-16 of a mile further, Argentine-bred Tuqui II, broke his left front leg too and went down, tossing rider Alvaro Pineda over his head.

Yvetot, with Frank Olivares riding, hit Tuqui. And racing up was Autobiography's stable mate Dendron, with Jesus Guadalupe in the saddle. Guadalupe, who learned less than an hour before the race that he was to ride, had first to miss the downed Belmonte and then Pineda. He and his mount missed them both.

An ambulance rushed Belmonte to the hospital which reported he was cut and bruised on both thighs and had suffered a concussion and a cut over his right eye. He was unconscious for a time but later came to.

Last year American Motors introduced the Buyer Protection Plan.

Now everyone's trying to get on the bandwagon. So, once and for all, we'd like to set the record straight. Who does back their cars the best?

Well, notice the proliferation of "NO's" in every one but the American Motors column.

CARROLL RICHTER'S HOROSCOPE

from the Carroll Richter Institute
GENERAL TENDENCIES: A day to concentrate upon lightness of heart and spirit for any sort of work requiring neatness and precision or where cooperative ventures are concerned. Problems in any marital relationship can be easily settled at this time. Be happy.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) Show associates that you are more willing to cooperate with them and get right results now. Come to a real meeting of minds. You can reconcile with one who has been a foe in the past.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) A fellow worker who has been stubborn is now in right mood and you can join forces amicably. Spend spare time shopping for a fine item to add to your wardrobe. Stay within your budget.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) A good day to plan recreations that can lift your spirit and make you feel much happier. Paying more attention to mate now is wise. This can bring the results that you want.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) You can do much now to make your home more charming and comfortable. Make a fine impression on those you invite to your home. Show particular hospitality to friends. Be wise.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) Communicating with others can bring just the right results today, so get busy early and make progress. You can make your job more productive. Take time to visit friends and relatives.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Find out what your true financial position is and then you can do something constructive about improving it. Take good care of your possessions. Show others you have good common sense.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Plan your wardrobe better so that your finest features are brought out and heightened. Engage in a group affair that brings you real pleasure. Show others that you truly like them.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Make sure you follow the good suggestions of experts in your field and get ahead faster. Use your intuition in making plans for the future. Steer clear of one with an eye on your assets.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Delving into a new and interesting outlet is fine, since you can add to present income. You can easily obtain the knowledge you need. Go after that favor from one who likes you.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Make sure you follow every rule that applies to you where the government is concerned. Show that you are a fine citizen. New ideas you have can help you advance in your field.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) New conditions can now be helpful in getting ahead faster. Obtain the information you need at the right sources. Use tact or others could deter your progress. Show that you have wisdom.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) Make plans on how to handle your obligations for the future. Put recreation aside for the time being. Talk over with mate what should be done to have more mutual happiness in the future.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY... he or she will be one of those delightful young people who charms others easily. There is a tendency here to get caught in too much small detail and this could lessen the success possible in this chart. The musical, artistic and cultural fields are exceptionally fine here as a profession. Much money can be made early in life. Athletics are a natural here.

"The Stars impel, they do not compel." What you make of your life is largely up to YOU!

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE - Here's how to work it:
A X Y D L B A A X R
is LONGFELLOW

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

Views On Television

NEW YORK (AP) — Ever feel like the guy who bought a pumpkin farm only to find they'd cancelled Halloween? You may get that feeling watching a CBS television special that's on tonight.

The show is "Ed Sullivan Presents the TV Comedy Years." It runs 90 minutes and is billed as "an affectionate look at the comedy stars and programs of the past quarter century."

It was a fine idea on paper and gets off to a promising start with an ancient kinescope of Jack Benny's first TV show.

In it, Benny talks about his friendly arch-rival from the radio days, the late Fred Allen. Two of Allen's most prominent facial features were the pronounced bags under his eyes.

"Allen looks like a short butcher peeping over two pounds of liver," Benny says. Alas, things soon collapse after this in a barrage of so-so clips from past and present talk and situation comedy shows. They far outnumber the few inspired moments in the Sullivan special.

It's a shame, because there is a wealth of great material still lurking in network film vaults. Fortunately, a few were retrieved, one a brutally funny Sid Caesar skit from his "Show of Shows" era.

It featured Carl Reiner as an oily-voiced host of something that suspiciously resembled "This Is Your Life." The life belonged to Caesar, who sat in the studio audience.

Caesar wanted no part of it. He leaped about, flailing his arms wildly, and dashed for the nearest exit, only to be pounced upon by a squad of pages and a host determined to honor him.

Caesar, Martha Raye and Red Buttons appeared as guests on the Sullivan special in a mildly funny skit about three stars arguing over where to put the canned laughter in their new show. "Got that, Charlie?" Caesar asks the laugh-track technician at one point. "That's one snicker, one medium smirk and hold the guffaw."

But there aren't many guffaws in the entire show and it's maddening. I'm sure the producers did their best to compile a representative collection of 25 years of TV laughter.

But the collection contains a lot of duds, many of which still are making the afternoon rounds on local stations.

That they wound up on a prime-time comedy special is sufficient cause to request a court of inquiry and have it run by Steve Allen, Sid Caesar, Jack Benny and Carol Burnett.

Laos Truce Wednesday

SAIGON (AP) — Vientiane radio announced today that the royal Lao government and the Communist Pathet Lao have agreed on a cease-fire for Laos and a signing ceremony will be held Wednesday.

The announcement did not describe terms of the cease-fire or specify when it would take effect. It said only that "a ceremony for signing the cease-fire agreement will be held" in Vientiane at 11 a.m. Wednesday local time — 11 p.m. EST.

The Communist-backed Pathet Lao have been negotiating with the government of Premier Souvanna Phouma for weeks in attempt to get a cease-fire.

The Communist spokesman in Vientiane made no mention of how the Pathet Lao-proposed cease-fire agreement would be supervised or whether it would call for withdrawal of foreign troops. The North Vietnamese have 65,000 soldiers in the country, backing the Pathet Lao in their drive to take over.

Prince Souvanna said earlier he would not be able to accept such a cease-fire because of the continuing threat of Hanoi's troops. He said the cease-fire could only follow agreement on troop withdrawal.

That presumably would include American advisers in the field with the Lao army and Thai mercenaries who fight for the government.

The United States has been backing the government with heavy financial aid and continuing air strikes, some by eight jet B52 bombers. The Pentagon said last week the strikes by B52s and smaller fighter-bombers were averaging about 380 a day.

Tax Reform, Vietnam Bonus Face Action In Ohio Senate

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Senate Ways and Means Committee today recommended for floor passage a Vietnam War veterans bonus proposal. But its fate for the May ballot was still undecided.

The resolution, which would put the issue on the May ballot, underwent several changes in a Senate subcommittee.

The Ways and Means Committee called up three nearly identical bills to let married working couples file separate state returns at a savings, no matter how they file their federal returns. Gilligan claims their passage would cost the state $90 million a year in revenue which it can't afford to lose.

Other key hearings were set in the upper chamber as members of the General Assembly returned from weekend recess to begin their eighth week week. Several constitutional amendments—including an embattled Vietnam Veterans' bonus already passed by the House—face a Thursday deadline for Senate action if they are to get on the May primary ballot.

The income tax bills are being sponsored by Sens. Michael J. Maloney, R-7 Cincinnati, Paul R.

Matia, R-25 Westlake, and Ronald M. Mottl, D-24 Parma. House members of both parties also have similar bills pending in that chamber over objections of the governor, who asserted it is "irresponsible" to propose the revenue loss without providing for an alternate source of funds.

The bi-partisan move is attributed to pressures from lawmakers' constituents, who were said to be incensed to learn that under the tax law, couples must file their state returns the same way they file with the Internal Revenue Service. A joint federal return normally means a savings, but a joint state return means a higher "family" income and a higher tax bracket.

A showdown could come today in Maloney's committee on the Vietnam bonus which hit a major snag last week when a Ways and Means subcommittee provided that it would be paid with funds from the state general revenue fund. Sponsoring House Democrats said they will insist on their original proposal to pay off the $300 million in bonds with a .6-mill property tax increase.

"Landscaping For Homeowners" Is Ohio U.-Lancaster Short Course

A short course in landscaping for homeowners will be offered again by the Lancaster Campus of Ohio University.

The program, co-sponsored with the Fairfield County Cooperative Extension Service, will consist of four sessions to be held on four consecutive Monday evenings, 7:30 to 9:30 p.m., starting March 5.

Each of the four sessions will deal with a different topic including the selection, care and placement of ornamentals, shrubs, trees, annuals and perennials in the landscape design; the establishment, renovation and maintenance of a lawn and the identification and control of common insect problems.

Instructors for the course are members of the College of Agriculture from Ohio State University, Columbus.

Registration in the program can be completed at the Office of Continuing Education, Lancaster Campus of Ohio University from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m., Monday through Friday and 9 a.m. to noon on Saturday.

Additional information can be obtained by calling 654-6711, extension 27.

Car Thief Nabbed By W. Va. Police

A car, stolen in Circleville Monday night, was recovered by Cabell County, W. Va., authorities Tuesday morning and the 16-year-old driver taken into custody.

The auto, belonging to Harry Garrett Sr., was stolen sometime between 9 p.m. and midnight from in front of 140 Walnut St.

Cabell County authorities notified Circleville police they had recovered the vehicle 4:18 a.m. The driver was a juvenile escapee from the Fairfield School For Boys near Lancaster.

North Viets Rush Supplies Southward Through Laos

WASHINGTON (AP) — Despite the Vietnam cease-fire, U.S. intelligence sources report, the North Vietnamese have poured hundreds of tanks and thousands of fresh troops into the Laotian supply trail in recent weeks. There is no available evidence whether any of this has crossed into South Vietnam, but military sources said the movements make no sense

2 Gunmen Slain, 1 Nabbed During Shootout In London

LONDON (AP) — Three armed men masked with stockings invaded the Indian High Commission today, beat and tied up employees and then shot it out with British police. Two of the raiders were killed, and the third was injured and arrested, Scotland Yard said.

One policeman, an Indian official and two bystanders were treated for shock and minor injuries at nearby hospitals.

The raiders were Indians or Pakistanis and were in their 20s, the Yard said.

"We were down in the basement, and then we heard a lot of shooting," said a member of the Indian mission's staff, Rita Morgan.

"We all rushed up the stairs and saw two masked men who turned, and we just fled down the stairs."

She said the gunmen were telling everyone to lie down on the floor. She heard three or four shots, and then the men made them come upstairs.

Another member of the staff said one of the invaders was armed with a sword and the others had pistols.

Members of the British Commonwealth are represented in each other's capitals by high commissioners instead of ambassadors, and the missions are known as high commissions rather than embassies. The post of Indian high commissioner is vacant, and M. Rascoira is acting chief of the commission.

Indian officials said the three men appeared to be "misguided Pakistanis." The officials said the men evidently wanted to seize one or more hostages.

The Indians said the men entered the building about 9:30 a.m., and other eyewitnesses said armed police reached the building within four minutes.

The shootout occurred in a hallway. The Yard said that, as police rushed into the building, they encountered one of the raiders, who aimed a pistol at them. It was not clear immediately who fired first.

The attack was over in less than an hour. The India House staff returned to their offices, and a policeman on the scene said: "All the intruders have been removed. No one escaped."

Joan Wagner Resigns Child Service Board

The Pickaway County Commissioners today accepted with regret the resignation of Joan Wagner from the Children's Services Board.

Mrs. Wagner had served two years on the board. No replacement has been named for Mrs. Wagner.

Commissioners were also informed of the resignation of C. J. (Jack) Smith, Kingston, from the Pickaway County Library Board, a position he has held for six years.

Commissioners and the clerk, Geneva Brink, will attend a seminar March 1-2 at Columbus.

Present for today's weekly session were Wayne Hines, commission chairman; L. Robert Liston and Dick Tiffin Tootle.

The Jan. 27 cease-fire agreement limits resupply of Communist or government troops inside South Vietnam to replacement of damaged, destroyed or worn-out equipment on a one-for-one basis.

According to intelligence reports, the North Vietnamese have sent more than 250 tanks, many powerful 122mm and 130mm guns, about 50 armored personnel carriers and about 1,300 tons of supplies into Southern Laos since early this month.

These sources also estimated that about 15,000 North Vietnamese troops have moved into Southern Laos since the ceasefire. Intelligence analysts say about half are headed for the region near Saigon, some into the South Vietnamese Central Highlands, and others into the area below the demilitarized zone.

Meanwhile, a single motorfuel pipeline which North Vietnamese Army engineers laid across the DMZ last spring to support a tank-led invasion is reported undergoing expansion with a second pipeline to increase the flow of oil and gas from North Vietnam.

Although the Vietnam ceasefire does not cover fighting in Laos, U.S. peace negotiator Henry A. Kissinger has said the agreement includes "a flat prohibition" against use of Laos and Cambodia for infiltration into South Vietnam.

About the time the agreement was completed, Kissinger said he expected the 145,000 North Vietnamese troops remaining in South Vietnam to dwindle gradually.

There is nothing in the agreement that would penalize any of the parties for failing to carry out its terms. An international commission set up to supervise compliance has no enforcement powers.

Wolfe Attends Annual Confab

"Ideas Into Action" was the theme of the Ohio Association of Elementary School Principals Professional Conference attended last week by Principal Roger Wolfe, of the McDowell Exchange School.

Wolfe was one of some 1,000 educators from all sections of the state attending the conference last Thursday through Friday at the Ohio Exposition Center in Columbus.

Heading the list of speakers was CBS news correspondent Mike Wallace, who spoke at the OAESPP's annual awards banquet on Thursday night.

Installed as OAESPP President for the coming year was Edsel Thomas of Lima. He succeeds Ken Rychener of Bryan as head of the state-wide principals' organization.

OSU Theatre Slates Play For Children

"Sing Ho for a Prince," a musical based on the Grimm brothers' Sleeping Beauty, will be shown at Ohio State University's Thurber Theatre March 3 and 4.

Performances of the children's play will be given each day, Saturday at 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. and Sunday at 1:30 and 3:30 p.m.

"Sing Ho" concerns a beautiful princess by the name of Rosamund. Life is beautiful for the princess and the Kingdom of Thence but for the presence of an evil fairy, Hegal. A sleeping spell is cast which can only be broken by a kiss from a courageous prince.

The kingdom is not entirely without friends, however, as a group of good fairies travel throughout the land in search of a proper prince. All ends happily when a prince is finally found who can break the spell.

"Sing Ho" will be presented in the Thurber Theatre, located in Drake Center. Tickets may be purchased at the College of the Arts Ticket Office, Mershon Lobby West, or at the door at curtain time.
